fixing the salary and easements of the Dewan, the Dewan is entitled to free supply of tents in his tours in the interior of the State. It is a question for orders as to whether this should be taken to entitle the Dewan to free accommodation. Submitted for orders.

(2) There do not seem to be any specific orders exempting the Dewan from the payment of fees for traveller's Bungalows, but in practice no such fees appear to be paid. There is much to be said ~~for the Dewan - the chief Executive officer of the State being empowered to use the~~ for the T Bs in the State being placed, free of charge, at the disposal of the Chief Executive Officer of the State during his tours, as a mina easement attached to the office. The amount involved ~~either~~ is likely to be very small looked at from the point of view of the State or of the Dewan. It seems to be merely a question of the prestige & ~~dignity~~ dignity of the appointment.
